DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bagley et al. (US 5,259,190).

Regarding claim 1, Bagley discloses a regeneration device (Fig. 1) of an exhaust gas comprising:

A casing (6); and

A honeycomb-like filter (Fig. 1) accommodated in the casing (see Fig. 1) and made of a porous silicon carbide (col. 2 lines 27-31) carrying an exhaust gas purification catalyst (see claim 16).

Regarding claim 2, Bagley, as discussed in claim 1 above, further discloses the honeycomb-like filter is heated by exhaust gas to remove the particulates included in the exhaust gas (col. 1 lines 9-38).

Regarding claim 3, Bagley, as discussed in claim 1 above, further discloses that the honeycomb-like filter removes the particulates included in the exhaust gas after the honeycomb-like filter is preheated by the exhaust gas (col. 1 lines 9-38).
